INFORMATION

The application for residence permit must be submitted in person with documents verifying compliance with conditions for residence enclosed.

One facial photograph and proof of payment of the administrative service fee provided for by law must also be enclosed with the application.

At the time of submitting the application the applicant shall produce his/her valid travel document. The passport must be valid for at least 3 additional months beyond the date of expiry of the residence permit.

The following must be enclosed with the application:

documents evidencing the purpose of residence

- formal statement from the host medical facility on the medical treatment provided
- for accompanying family members, document proving family ties

documents evidencing the use of lodging

- certified copy of title deed issued within 30 days to date
- residential lease contract
- document on accommodation by courtesy
- completed accommodation registration form signed by landlord
- other document

documents evidencing subsistence and financial resources for medical treatment

- bank statement
- other document

documents evidencing comprehensive sickness insurance cover

If the conditions that served as the basis for issuing the residence permit have not changed by the time the application for the extension of the residence permit was submitted, and they remain capable to verify the conditions for residence, documents to support such unaltered conditions need not be supplied once again.

During the process, the immigration authority may request further documents for ascertaining the relevant facts of the case.

The competent immigration authority may be requested to obtain from another authority proof for any data you have supplied. That part of the application shall be construed as consent for the processing and transmission of your personal data. If any requisite data is obtained by the competent immigration authority, the relating charge or administrative service fee must be paid to the immigration authority.
